ITEMS FOR DISCUSSION/ACTION:

INFORMATIONAL PRESENTATION FROM NECCO

Leah Smith from NECCO appeared before the Commission. She said NECCO is a social services agency that is in Kentucky, West Virginia, Georgia and Ohio. She said they started in 1996 as a primary foster care agency but now they also do residential living, independent living, therapy services for the families, so they follow the children from foster care all the way through adulthood. She said their tagline is that they build families. She said they build families through foster care and adoption and she said she is a foster parent and an adoptive parent so her family has been built that way. She said they build families by helping these parents that maybe have seen bad habits and learned not necessarily the best ways to live by helping them to structure their lives and hopefully reunify with their children and get better at what they do and if they can't they build families through adoption. She said NECCO just recently opened an office in Elkins so they are now in four places in West Virginia. She said they really need foster parents. She said there are 7,700 children in state care in West Virginia and that number is rising. She said every year they lose children with being adopted or fostered or aging out of the system but more and more are coming into the system. She said they are bracing for impact since the children have went back to school. She said the teachers are their number one reporters. She said the biggest need is for parents to take children 10-18 years of age. She said a lot of people want little babies. She said empty nesters are excellent because they have experience raising children. She said the teens are very, very grateful for everything you do for them. She said nine times out of ten they are just happy to have a bed and a clean house. She said it is incredibly easy to get licensed and it is free to become a foster parent. She said the state provides the foster parents with a stipend to help take care of the child and healthcare is covered. She said there is no financial obligation at all, just their time, attention and patience.

CONSIDER HIRE OF TWO PART TIME EMPLOYEES FOR 911 CENTER

(See attached copies)

Cindy Hart appeared before the Commission. She said she is requesting the hiring of two part time employees, the first one being Marshall Howser and the second one being Richard Hamrick. He said this will allow for credit card payments on the fire fees, in the office or online. Commissioner Kesling moved to approve the purchase of

He said they felt this would be a great benefit for the community and it would help in community relations, officer and citizen safety, help in tracking and help in detection of narcotics. He said they set a goal of $25,000.00. He said thus far they have been able to raise enough for the down payment and this will allow them to send a Deputy to start training and to be paired up with a K-9. He said they are asking the Commission if they could help out in any way. Commissioner Kesling asked how much have they raised? Mr. Cogar said $7,100.00 as of now. Commissioner See said they received an email from the Sheriff's Association asking for a donation and they have discussed it. BEFORE THE COUNTY COMMISSION OF RANDOLPH COUNTY, WEST VIRGINIA

IN RE: Carolyn Tompkins

REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION

Pursuant to W. Va. Code §44-3-7 the undersigned was appointed to consider and make recommendations on issues arising in the above-referenced estate, as a result of objections filed by Kimberley Tompkins (on 2/28/2020) and, apparently, Terry Tompkins (collectively, "the Complainants"). The Complainants are two of the three heirs to the Estate of Carolyn Tompkins.

The initial Appraisement was filed by Leskie Tompkins, Administrator for the Estate of Carolyn Tompkins, deceased, on or about November 4, 2019.

A Waiver of Final Settlement, executed by the three heirs, was presented to the County Commission on February 21, 2020.

After submission of the Waiver of Final Settlement, the Complainants filed their objections to the submission of the Wavier of Final Settlement. These claims prompted the re-opening of the probate process for the Estate of Carolyn Tompkins, deceased, and the appointment of the undersigned as Fiduciary Commissioner.

Subsequently, on May 1, 2020, Leskie Tompkins filed an Amended Appraisement, with the assistance of counsel.

By letter dated June 16, 2020, the undersigned communicated with the three heirs, noting the filing of the Amended Appraisement and inquiring as to Complainants' intent to pursue their objections and requesting a response within 15 days.

Thereafter, the undersigned received no communication whatsoever from any of the heirs. Subsequently, the undersigned learned that Kimberley Tompkins did not receive his letter.

Approved by the County Commission 3-18-2021

By letter dated October 1, 2020, the undersigned again communicated with all three heirs, again inquiring as to the intent of the Complainants and requesting a response within 15 days. Further, the undersigned informed the heirs as to the pre-paid cost associated with a hearing on the Complainants' objections. As of this date, the undersigned has not received any response from any of the heirs.

Terry Tompkins died on or about January 5, 2021.

As of this date, with the Complainants having had ample opportunity to raise issues to the undersigned, request a hearing and submit pre-payment, it appears that they no longer wish to pursue the claims that they initially raised, which prompted the appointment of the undersigned.

WHEREFORE, it is recommended that the County Commission deem the Complainants' claims to be withdrawn and that the Estate of Carolyn Tompkins proceed toward closure.

If the Claimants fail to notify the Special Commissioner of their decision within 45 days after the delivery of the agreed documents, it shall be understood that they intend for their claims to be withdrawn.

The parties' Agreement represents a full resolution of the issues before the undersigned.

The result of this Agreement is that the Claimants' claims will be held in abeyance for a period of 45 after the delivery of the documents described in para. (1)(a – c), above. Within that 45-day period, the Claimants will decide whether or not they wish to pursue any part of their claims, and they will notify the Special Commissioner of that decision. If Claimants decide to pursue their claims further, then this Special Commissioner will set this matter for further hearing.

WHEREFORE, it is recommended that the County Commission ratify and approve the Parties' agreement as set forth above.

BEFORE THE COUNTY COMMISSION OF RANDOLPH COUNTY, WEST VIRGINIA

IN RE: Helen Cleo Arbogast

SECOND REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION

Pursuant to W. Va. Code §44-3-7 the undersigned was appointed to decide issues arising in the above referenced estate.

Subsequent to the approval of this initial Report and Recommendations, from the undersigned on February 12, 2020, Marilyn Westfall, Steve Arbogast and Donna Brackin (“the Complainants”) raised additional “concerns” about their mother’s checking and savings accounts, namely:

1. “I know that the signature on the savings account is not hers.”
2. “My mother knew how to spell her name – Helen – not Helne.”
3. Expressing concerns about withdrawals from their mother’s account(s) by Donna Diane Arbogast.

The undersigned responded to the complainants, by letter dated April 27, 2020, and explained as follows:

1. The first issue suggests fraud, an issue over which the undersigned does not have jurisdiction to consider. That issue would have to be presented and heard by the Circuit Court.
2. The second issue suggests either fraud or that the Decedent was not competent when she signed the signature card. Like with the first issue, the undersigned does not have jurisdiction to consider this issue; it would have to be raised at the circuit court level.

3. As to the third issue, to the extent that Donna Diane Arbogast was properly added to the Decedent's savings account as a joint tenant, she was a co-owner of that account. As such, she had a right to withdraw funds from that account.

In the letter, the undersigned requested that the Complainants respond within 15 days to declare their intent as to whether they would proceed and how; the letter also clarified the payment schedule for further hearings. Over time, the undersigned received no responsive communications from any of the Complainants and, further, the undersigned received no indication of the complainants' intent to file a complaint with the Circuit Court.

By letter dated December 15, 2020, the undersigned again communicated with the Complainants. In that letter, the undersigned communicated the following:

1. He reiterated his position from the earlier letter;
2. Allowed the complainants an additional 15 days to file an action in the Circuit Court; and
3. Allowed the complainants an additional 15 days to request, in writing, a hearing on any remaining issue, such as the transfer/delivery of property or the alleged undervaluation of Estate property.

As of the date of submission of this report and recommendation, the undersigned has received no communications from any of the Complainants.

As of this date, with the Complainants having had ample opportunity to raise issues to the undersigned or, alternatively, to pursue their claims in the Circuit Court of Randolph County, it appears that they no longer wish to pursue the claims that they initially raised, which prompted the appointment of the undersigned.

WHEREFORE, it is recommended that the County Commission deem the Complainants' claims to be withdrawn and that the Estate of Helen Cleo Arbogast proceed toward settlement and closure.
